Obituary

Annie Jean Hartwell-Dueberry was born on September 16, 1946 to Alvin and Ruth Hartwell at Herrick Hospital in Berkeley, California, who preceded her in death. Ann began her Christian walk with God at Mount Olive Church of God in Christ in Richmond, California and continued her belief and faith in God. Ann became a member of Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church and was also baptized in 1998 under the leadership of Dr. Robert K. Gordon, Pastor. Ann graduated from Richmond Union High School in 1965. She was a mentor for the Brookside Hospital Rape Crisis Center in San Pablo, California. She pursued her career at Pacific Gas and Electric Company where she was employed for 35 years. Ann was also a member of the professional modeling group called The Rising Signs for several years. In June of 2000, Ann united in marriage with Willie Dueberry.

Preceding Annie in death were her parents, Alvin and Ruth Hartwell; and her brother, Fredrick Hartwell.

Cherishing her memory is her loving husband, Willie Dueberry; her two daughters, Shellie McKelvy and Alicia Williams both of California; one stepdaughter, Donicia Dueberry of California; one stepson, Vincent Dueberry of California; three sisters, Verna Cavero, Janet Brown and Kathey Turner all of California; two brothers, Wayne Hartwell and Alvin Hartwell both of California; seven sisters-in-law, Cherlee and Margaret Hartwell both of California, Gloria Hendricks, Margie Samuel, Marilyn Tolbert, Blanche Dueberry and Mary Barker all of Mobile, Alabama; five brothers-in-law, Silas Brown and Oscar Turner both of California, Lionel Dueberry of Mobile, Alabama, Richard Dueberry of Tampa, Florida and Samuel Dueberry of Deluth, Georgia; six grandchildren, Andrew, Alvin, Avery, Ayanna, Mariah and Darnell all of California; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Come With Me

The Lord saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer,
And saw you fade away,
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.

It's lonesome here without you,
We miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same,
Since you went away.

When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong
We seem to hear you whisper
"Cheer up and carry on."

Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's Keeping,
We'll meet again someday.

A golden heart stopped beating,
A beautiful smile at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove,
He only takes the best.
